

2012 National CASA Conference

June 9-12, 2012, Washington, DC

Join more than 1,400 colleagues from around the country for three-plus days of information-packed workshops and inspirational keynote addresses from leaders in their fields.

After the conference, be part of a delegation bringing the voices of children to Capitol Hill as part of the 2012 CASA Meets Congress.

To be notified about conference registration and other details, subscribe to receive conference email updates.

Wondering what the 2011 conference had to offer? Download the PDF of the 2011 conference program (954 KB).

About the Conference

Who Attends?

Each year, more than 1,400 CASA and guardian ad litem staff, board members, volunteers, judges, attorneys and other child welfare professionals gather to connect with peers and learn from leaders in the field.

As one CASA volunteer said, people who come to National CASA's multi-disciplinary conference are "people who believe that kids count."

Why Attend?

- Learn from top-notch faculty leading more than 60 workshops and institutes
- Be inspired by well-known general session speakers
- Network with more than 1,400 like-minded volunteers and professionals
- Enjoy an exhibit hall filled with resources

Conference Goals

Strengthen Volunteer Voices: Build skills and acquire tools that will enhance your ability to speak up for abused and neglected children.

Develop Inclusive Practices: Expand your knowledge and skills while exploring practices that enable us to better serve all children in our communities and continue the journey towards cultural competency.

Build Leadership Skills: Increase your ability to sustain and expand your CASA/GAL program.

Renew Your Commitment: Fortify your spirit and resolve to effect change through talking with and listening to peers and presenters.