Description: This training aims to look into how this situation developed, its current status, and various attempts to respond; including prohibition, harsh legislation, incarcerations, treatment, recovery support services, medication-assisted treatment, and pathways to facilitate recovery. We'll explore what drives people to substance use and what addicts hope to get from the drugs. We'll consider how the stigma that lingers from addiction makes it difficult to gain employment, safe housing, and the resources to continue recovery, as well as how we can work together to develop innovative new services to help more people transcend their addiction and develop into people in long-term recovery.

Rule 48*Time: 9:00 am - 4:00 pm (6 hours)Cost: FreeRelational Aggression: The Hidden Violence in Girls*Date: Tuesday, August 29, 2017Place: Lucas County Conference and Learning CenterTo sign up: Contact Megan Hite at megan.hite@co.lucas.oh.us Registration is limited to 30.Instructor: Janice Morabeto

Description: Relational aggression is the method of choice for girls when the decision to "fight" is made. Unlike physical aggression, which is easy to detect, relational aggression is secretive, covert, and many times overlooked by teachers and parents. Research is clear that this type of violence can be every bit as harmful. This workshop will explore relational aggression in depth and give participants principles and practices to help detect, understand, and stop it.

Place: Lucas County Conference and Learning Center Cost: Free
To sign up: Contact Megan Hite at megan.hite@co.lucas.oh.us Registration is limited to 30.
Instructor: Brian Bethel
Description: A dual diagnosis occurs when an individual is affected by both chemical dependency and an emotional or psychiatric illness. Individuals who present with coexisting disorders often require specialized services. Current research indicates the best outcomes occur when both disorders are treated simultaneously. However, social services, on the whole, are not well prepared to deal with people who have both disorders. This workshop will provide an overview of the dual diagnosis and will address the challenges commonly associated with a dual diagnosis. In addition, participants will be exposed to evidenced-based treatment strategies for this population.

Wounded Warriors: The Treatment of Sexually Abused Males Rule 48

The learning will identify the problems that occur when children cannot play appropriately due to issues, abuse, or neglect. The participants will learn the theoretical importance of play therapy. Social workers and counselors will learn how to use different toys to help the interview process, and how those toys can also help children work through emotional issues. Participants will learn how to create a therapeutic toy box that will help children express their emotions related to abuse and/or neglect.Baby, Sister, and Me: A Plea to Keep Siblings ConnectedRule 48*Date: Wednesday, September 27, 2017Time: 9:00 am – 4:00 pm (6 hours)Place: Lucas County Conference and Learning CenterCost: FreeTo sign up: Contact Megan Hite at megan.hite@co.lucas.oh.us Registration is limited to 30.Instructor: Anthony PresidentDescription: The longest relationship most of us will have in our lives is with our siblings. From cradle to grave, siblings can be a constant relationship that we can depend on for social support. Unfortunately, 75% of siblings taken into foster care end up living apart (Child Welfare Information Gateway). Foster and adoptive siblings need opportunities to bond with their siblings who live outside of their homes. This workshop takes an exploratory view of the unique bond abused siblings share and strategies for social workers to keep siblings connected.

Women's Substance Abuse and Recovery Issues: Perspectives from a Clinician and a Client

Rule 48

Date: Friday, September 29, 2017

Time: 9:00 am - 4:00 pm (6 hours)

Place: Lucas County Conference and Learning Center

Cost: Free

To sign up: Contact Megan Hite at megan.hite@co.lucas.oh.us Registration is limited to 30.

Instructor: China Darrington and Maureen Keating

Description: Being a woman with substance use issues takes an enormous toll on a family. Two out of three cases of abuse and neglect stem from growing up in a home with an addicted primary caregiver. The cultural role of women often presents significant barriers to treatment and obstacles to engaging in long-term recovery. The demands of caregiving can often take priority over a woman seeking treatment for her own issues. Approaches for engaging a woman and understanding her readiness to enter treatment are discussed, with emphasis on understanding child welfare issues and the types of substance use treatment interventions that support successful outcomes.
